ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

Market My Art (MMA)
Effective Date: 5 November 2026

1. Introduction

This Acceptable Use Policy establishes the rules and standards governing access to and use of the Market My Art (MMA) website, marketplace, services and related digital platforms.

MMA provides an online platform through which independent artists, artisans, creators and vendors can showcase and sell their products to customers locally and internationally.

All users, including buyers, vendors, sellers and visitors, are expected to use the platform responsibly, lawfully and respectfully.

2. Lawful Use of the Platform

Users agree to:

- Use MMA only for lawful purposes.
- Provide accurate and truthful information when registering, purchasing or selling.
- Respect the intellectual property and ownership rights of artists, vendors and other users.
- Comply with applicable laws and regulations governing online transactions, consumer protection and commercial activities.
- Avoid activities that could compromise the security or integrity of the platform.

3. Prohibited Activities

Users must not:

- Upload, advertise, sell or distribute illegal products or services.
- Engage in fraudulent transactions, payment manipulation or deceptive commercial practices.
- Use stolen payment cards, false identities or unauthorised financial accounts.
- Upload misleading product descriptions, counterfeit merchandise or false claims about products.
- Publish offensive, threatening, discriminatory, defamatory or unlawful content.
- Infringe copyrights, trademarks, designs or other intellectual property rights.
- Attempt to hack, disrupt, damage or gain unauthorised access to MMA systems.
- Introduce malicious software, viruses or harmful code.
- Use automated tools, bots or scripts to interfere with platform operations without MMA's written permission.
- Misuse customer information or personal data.
- Harass, threaten, intimidate or exploit other platform users.

4. Vendor Responsibilities

Vendors using MMA must:

- Ensure that products offered for sale are genuine and accurately represented.
- Have the legal right to sell or distribute the products they list.
- Provide clear descriptions, photographs, prices and relevant product information.
- Disclose important product characteristics, including dimensions, materials and customisation details where applicable.
- Fulfil accepted orders within the stated processing and delivery arrangements.
- Respond professionally to customer enquiries and complaints.
- Comply with applicable consumer protection, tax, product safety and commercial regulations.
- Avoid listing prohibited, counterfeit, stolen or unlawfully obtained products.

5. Buyer Responsibilities

Buyers must:

- Provide accurate delivery and contact information.
- Use valid and authorised payment methods.
- Review product descriptions, specifications and prices before placing orders.
- Avoid fraudulent refund claims, payment disputes or chargeback abuse.
- Communicate respectfully with vendors and MMA support representatives.

6. Content and Intellectual Property

Users must not upload or distribute content that infringes the intellectual property rights of another person or organisation.

Artists and vendors retain ownership of their original creative works unless otherwise agreed.

By submitting product images, descriptions and related materials to MMA, vendors grant MMA permission to display and use those materials for legitimate marketplace operations, marketing and product promotion, subject to applicable law and any agreed terms.

7. Monitoring and Enforcement

MMA reserves the right to monitor platform activity and investigate reported violations.

Where a user breaches this policy, MMA may:

- Remove or restrict access to prohibited listings or content.
- Suspend or restrict an account.

- Cancel transactions associated with fraudulent or prohibited activity.
- Withhold or reverse transactions where legally permitted and supported by applicable payment arrangements.
- Report suspected unlawful activity to relevant authorities.
- Take any other lawful action necessary to protect customers, vendors and the platform.

8. Reporting Violations

Users may report suspicious activities, fraudulent listings, inappropriate content or suspected violations by contacting:
